Whose marriage to Mr. Benjamin H. Brill will take place at 5 o'clock.

EVENTS OF INTEREST IN AND OUT OF TOWN

Mrs. Borland Will Give Hawaiian Reunion Tea Friday at Congressional Club.

Vice President Changes Residence.
Mayer-Barber Wedding—Other Important Social Events.

Mrs. William P. Borland will entertain at an informal tea at the Congressional Club Friday afternoon, the event being a reunion of the women now in Washington who were members of the congressional party which visited Hawaii at the close of the congressional session last summer.

Mrs. Borland's sister, Mrs. Katharine Fullerton of Kansas City, who is in Washington as her guest for several weeks, and having been a member of the party, will be the guest of honor Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Borland will be hostess at a tea at the Washington Club Saturday afternoon, when again Mrs. Fullerton will be guest of honor.

The Vice President and Mrs. Thomas R. Marshall are this afternoon leaving their apartment at the New Willard for home, and will take possession of 2620 Connecticut avenue, the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Pickford, which they have taken for two months.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Williams Noyes left today to spend the summer in New England. They will motor first to New London, to visit Dr. and Mrs. McDowell, afterward going to Kennebunkport, Me., for the remainder of the summer.

Miss Rhea Levy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Levy, and Mr. Benjamin H. Brill will be married this afternoon at 5 o'clock at the New Willard.

Dr. Stern will perform the ceremony, assisted by Dr. Simon, and a wedding supper will follow for the relatives and intimate friends present at the ceremony.

Miss Blanch Levy will attend her sister as maid of honor, and Mr. Fred Feltman will act as best man.

After their wedding trip Mr. and Mrs.
Brill will reside at 2826 17th street.

Mr. J. R. Hertford and family have gone to their summer home in Asbury Park, N. J., to remain until the fall.

The marriage of Miss Marguerite Barbour and Mr. George Lewis Mayer of Philadelphia will take place this afternoon at 5 o'clock at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. James F.
Barbour, on Rhode Island avenue.

Rev. Edward L. Buckley of St. Matthew's Church will perform the ceremony, which will be witnessed only by a small company of relatives and intimate friends, owing to the recent death of the bride's father.

The bride will wear a simple gown of lustrous bridal satin combined with tulle, made with a court train. Her veil, of exquisite lace will be caught with orange blossoms, and she will carry a bouquet of orchids. The bride's little niece, Josephine Broome, will be her only attendant.

After an informal reception for the guests present at the ceremony, Mr.
Mayer and his bride will leave for their wedding trip.

They will reside in Philadelphia, where Mr. Mayer is widely known, being a member of a number of prominent clubs, including the Philadelphia Club, the Merion Cricket Club and the Racquet Club.

Mrs. Alice Pomeroy returned from a short visit to the west Monday, when she was accompanied by her niece, Miss Margaretta Bockius of Canton, Ohio.

Miss Bockius will remain for some time. Senator and Mrs. Pomeroy will not leave Washington until the end of Congress.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Pickford and Mr.
William Pickford leave today for their summer home, on Toronto Island, Lake Ontario, Canada. They will be absent for the entire season.

Osborne Lake, daughter of the late Thomas W. Lake and Mrs. Florence O.
Lake, became the bride of Rev. Frank Townsend Ridgeway of Winchester, Va.
The ceremony took place in Rosh Chapel, the color scheme being white and yellow.
Being artistically carried out in white and yellow bells and festoons of daisies.
Rev. D. H. Kern, presiding officer of Bal-more district, assisted by Rev. I. B.
Lake of Upperville, officiated. The wedding music was played by Mrs. Walter Leith. Before the ceremony "O From-me Me" was sung by Mrs. Henry Stone Van Sicker.

The bride wore a gown of white silk and georgette crepe, and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses. Her coronet veil held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms. She was attended by Miss Jeanne Louis and Miss Leda. The bridesmaids wore white net and yellow tulle, with a picture hat of white, trimmed with daisies. Her shower bouquet was of daisies.

Master Lake Van Sicker was ring bearer, and he wore a white Fauntel-roy suit and carried the ring in a lily. Flower girls were Judith Van Sicker and Doris Faulkner, who wore white dresses with yellow sashes, and carried French baskets filled with daisies and roses.

The best man was Mr. Harry S. Dulin of Washington and Blument, and the ushers were Messrs. Roger and
